

UNITED STATES COPYRIGHT ROYALTY JUDGES

In the Matter of)

)
Determination of Rates and Terms)
for Business Establishment Services)

) Docket No. 2012-1 CRB
) Business Establishments II
)

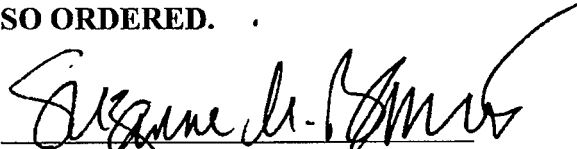

ORDER SETTING DEADLINE FOR FILING
WRITTEN DIRECT STATEMENTS

On March 26, 2012, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 803(b)(3), the Copyright Royalty Judges ("Judges") announced the three-month voluntary negotiation period in the above-captioned proceeding. At the conclusion of that period, the parties notified the Judges that they had not reached an agreement. In the absence of such agreement, the Judges are announcing the deadline for the filing of written direct statements.

The deadline for filing written direct statements is Friday, November 16, 2012. To be considered timely filed, an original, five copies, and an electronic copy in Portable Document Format ("PDF") on a CD must be filed with the Judges by no later than noon on Friday, November 16, 2012, and comply with the requirements of 37 C.F.R. § 351.4. A written direct statement filed after this deadline must be accompanied by a motion detailing why the statement is late and providing good cause for why it should be accepted. Late statements without an accompanying motion will not be accepted. Questions regarding the filing requirements for written direct statements should be directed to the Program Specialist at (202) 707-7658 or crb@loc.gov.

One copy of the written direct statement must be served on each person who appears on the "Counsel or Representative" box on the service list by close of business on the filing deadline. Failure to file a written direct statement, or to properly serve it, are grounds for dismissal of the party from the proceeding.

SO ORDERED. .

Suzanne M. Barnett
Chief Copyright Royalty Judge

DATED: July 27, 2012